

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE "THERMOGRAPHY AND THERMOMETRY IN INFRARED"

Conference "Thermography and Thermometry in Infrared" is the main conference on thermal imaging in Poland. It takes place every two years. It is a scientific and technical forum, where experts in various fields dealing with thermography can exchange their experiences, present the results of their research and discuss the use of thermography and thermometry in infrared. The conference helps in integrating the scientific and research community with industry.

The first organizer of the conference was Dr. Piotr Pręgowski. Thanks to him, the conference gained a high scientific rank and contributed to the integration of scientists and technicians involved in thermography. The actual organizer of the TTP Conference is the Institute of Electronics (Lodz University of Technology). The ambition of the TTP Conference organizers is to maintain the current conference profile, i.e. to promote and develop thermographic techniques in various fields of science and technology, with particular emphasis on quantitative thermography. The TTP Conference is accompanied by an exhibition of thermal imaging equipment, where the manufacturers present their latest hardware and software achievements.

CONFERENCE TOPICS

- Infrared detectors, detection of infrared radiation and radiometric temperature measurement
- Thermal imaging systems and their software
- Modelling and measurement of temperature distribution, thermal processes
- Non-destructive testing using infrared techniques
- Biomedical applications of infrared thermal imaging
- Industrial applications of infrared thermal imaging
- Civil engineering applications of infrared thermal imaging
- Scientific and technological applications of infrared thermal imaging

THERMOGRAPHIC SCHOOL

On 24.09.2019 the organizers invite for lectures and demonstrations during the thermographic school. The lecturers are specialists from Poland and abroad. The organizers issue certificates of participation in the thermographic course.

EXHIBITORS SESSION

As in previous years, there will be an exhibition of thermal imaging equipment during the TTP 2019 Conference. Manufacturers of thermographic hardware and software will be presenting their offer and their latest achievements. We offer two pages (full color) in conference proceedings and the possibility of presentation during Sponsors' plenary session.

PAPERS AND PUBLICATIONS

The organizers grant the possibility of publication of selected papers (in English language only) in the MAM Journal.

MAM Measurement Automation Monitoring

The papers will undergo a review process according to the MAM Editorial Office requirements. The hardcopies of MAM, entirely dedicated to the TTP Conference, will be delivered at the registration desk. For papers published in MAM, it is necessary to provide abstracts according to the template, which will be included in the electronic version of the conference proceedings (pendrive).

The deadline for abstract submission is 30.05.2019.

Due to the review process, we kindly ask for submission of the papers in electronic form until 20.05.2019. The detailed guidelines for authors will be presented on the website <http://thermo.p.lodz.pl/ttp> and will be send to you later on.

POSTER SESSION

There is a poster session during the TTP 2019 Conference. Every exhibitor gets 0.5 m² space for presenting his work. All the required stationery will be delivered by the organizers.
